PREFACE

Some 12 or more years before we became a member of the McIntire Clan of York County, Maine, we had investigated McIntire original records to complete our connection to the Junkins Family. At the first Reunion we attended we discovered that there was no authentic record available to aid any one who claimed to be a descendant to produce their proof. We offered a resolution to the effect that a definite family record be established to enable the present and future generations to prove any claim made of their descent, offering to undertake the compilation of the record if the members would cooperate in furnishing the necessary data. This resolution was adopted by the Clan and a Committee was appointed with your compiler as Chairman.

The work had progressed to the point in 1938 that a proposal to publish the work was voted by the Clan to be left to the Executive Committee for decision as to means of financing such publication. The book as presented represents the best obtainable with funds made available by this Committee.

In making this record we have had the cooperation of those now living, with some exceptions which are noted in their records; we take this opportunity to extend the thanks of the Committee for their assistance.

This record is based on documentary evidence, no tradition has been accepted at face value.

FOREWORD

It is with some trepidation we undertake the writing of the record of the Immigrant for this work.

First: The older members of the Clan have accepted family TRADITION so long that it has become almost sacred, though this itself differs as to the name of the wife, one branch has "HANNAH" and another has "ANN"; our record is based on documentary evidence obtained many years prior to our becoming a member of the Clan and without any prior knowledge of the tradition, etc.

Second: While we have the highest commendation for the work of the late John W. McIntire who salvaged considerable information, he unfortunately left out so much of real importance that his chart was not reliable for actual record. We believe if his correspondence could have been located it would have disclosed much more than was actually charted.

In the format of this record we have departed from our usual method of numbering individuals for the following reasons:

1st: We did not know in advance just WHO would show as a descendant hence it was necessary and essential that every person should have a number that could be carried on, if necessary, without disturbing the whole set up.

2d: We could tell at a glance the relationship of the numbers without consulting the whole file.

3d: It would enable us to make an index as the work progressed without waiting for a page proof from the printer.

In this system, not original with us, the Immigrant is not numbered, each of his children is numbered 1, 2, 3, 4. As only two of these left descendants we have for the sake of continuity separated them into CLANS; thus 2 JOHN (2) McINTIRE is the progenitor of CLAN A; 3 MICUM (2) McINTIRE is the progenitor of CLAN B.

The children of 2 are 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27; the children of 23 are 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238. Those who are carried on bear an asterisk with the number.

If there are more than nine (9) children in the family, say of 23, they would be designated 23:10, 23:11, etc.

The number assigned to a wife is that of her husband followed by a lower case letter, a, b, c for 1st, 2d, or 3d marriage; the same rules for a male marrying into the family.

HISTORICAL

The coming of the progenitor of this record and other Scotch Exiles to America and the reason therefor has been described by several historians; however, as these references are not readily available to many herein concerned we will give a brief outline for this record.

It has long been known that Oliver Cromwell took many Scotch prisoners at the battles of Dunbar and Worcester and that some of them were transported to the colonies of Massachusetts, Virginia and the West Indies.

In many cases of those who were sent to the Massachusetts colony the original names have been hidden by the phonetical spelling of the English clerks so that it is difficult to trace them, hence we find in public records many of the names spelled in many ways.

Oliver Cromwell, following his conquest of Ireland, invaded Scotland in the year 1650 with an army of some 16000 men, one third of whom were cavalry, to subdue the Covenanters who were supporting the cause of Charles II. After marching from Dunbar to Edinburgh and back he found his army in a dangerous position at Dunbar; many of his men through sickness had been sent back to England leaving about 11000 men in his forces.

The Scotch forces under General David Leslie, numerically greater but untrained, had taken the pass so as to close the way back to Durham and Newcastle. Provisions were becoming scarce and difficult to obtain more; not sufficient shipping to transport the army. The peninsula of Dunbar is only a mile and a half wide and here Cromwell's troops were hemmed in with no base of supplies accessible.

Leslie's plan was simply to wait and wear him out, but the fanatical leaders in the Scotch church thought it would be an easy thing, with the help of Jehovah, to defeat those English invaders and Leslie was constrained to order an attack.

The night of 2 September 1650 was stormy. Leslie's troops began moving over the pass, Cromwell observing them resolved to make a counter attack early in the morning. The cavalry and artillery of Cromwell quickly overpowered the right wing of the Scots. The Scots having heard that Cromwell would "put to the sword all men and thrust hot irons through women's breasts", fought with desperation. The cry of Cromwell's men was "The Lord of Hosts"; that of Leslie's men was "The Covenant."

In less than an hour the whole Scottish army was in confusion and rout, some 3000 Scotchmen were killed and 10000 taken prisoners. About one half of the prisoners were so enfeebled by sickness or wounds that Cromwell at once released them knowing they would never do battle again.

Five thousand prisoners were sent to Durham and Newcastle.

The Council at London were considering what to do with these prisoners of war. Colonists, especially laborers, were greatly needed in New England, Virginia and the West Indies. An order in Council on 10 Sept. 1650 "to write to Sir Arthur Hesselrigge to deliver to Samuel Clarke, for transport to Virginia 900 Scotch prisoners and 150 more for New England to be sent there by Joshua Foot and John Bex." Another order in Council 23 Oct. 1650 again makes mention of a shipload of prisoners about to be sent to New England. Nothing definite is known about this first company and the number of Scotchmen found in New England soon after indicates that other Scotch prisoners may have been sent to Boston besides those who came in the ship "Unity" in January 1650-51 and those who came a year later in the "John and Sara."

Whether the subject of this sketch or record came in the first ship or the "Unity" is not definitely known, though it is claimed and generally accepted by previous historians that those who later settled in York County, Maine and established Scotland came in the "Unity."

Of those who were sent over in this group who later settled at York, Maine we find Alexander Maxwell; Alexander Machanere; Andrew Rankin; Robert Junkins; Thomas Holmes and MICUM MECANTIRE. Among those who were prisoners of the battle of Worcester, just one year later, and who came in the "John and Sara", we find James Grant, the Drummer; James Grant, the Scotchman; John Carmuckle; Daniel Dill; James Jackson and probably Daniel Livingston.

SCOTLAND

It is believed it will be well to record here what are the actual and authentic facts known about the origin of Scotland, York Co., Maine as the tradition is far ahead of the real fact in so far as the DATE is concerned.

That part of the Patent of Agamenticus situated north of Bass Creek and now called "Scotland" was not originally settled by the Scotch prisoners. Their preponderance later caused it to be so called.

In the division of 1641 some six shares above Bass Creek to the north west limits of the Patent were allotted, none of the parties settled there.

In 1653 the town began to grant tracts of land in this section several years before the first Scotch prisoner arrived in York. The first grantees were Richard Banks, Thomas Curtis, William Dixon, Rowland Young, Arthur Bragdon, Matthew Austin and John Alcock. None of these, except as noted, lived on or improved these lots. The only one of these grantees who ventured into this unpenetrated region was John Alcock, and from subsequent records he appears to have disposed of more holdings than were granted to him.

On 22 March 1654-55 John Alcock sold to Thomas Moulton 75 acres of land and on this land was a "small building", which was undoubtedly used as a dwelling house. (Deeds i-63)

Moulton was therefore the first actual settler in "Scotland." He resided here with his wife and family until 22 January 1656-7 when he sold to Alexander Maxwell and took up his residence on Gorges Neck. (Deeds i-63) The location of this house and lot can be identified, approximately, as part of the original ground of the 2d Meeting House on south west side of the road. With the departure of Moulton we have the first Scotchman in "Scotland". The others came intermittently, the last one to arrive being MICUM MECANTIRE who came in 1670.

GARRISON HOUSES

The house now known as the McINTIRE GARRISON was the subject of a drawing by Frank S. Church, of New York, in 1872 and used in an article in the New England Register (xxviii-269). This article dates the house circa 1645, which is long before any records cover this section of York County.

This house, we believe, was constructed AFTER King Philip's War 1675-76 as this was the first Indian trouble in this section of the country. This house is definitely in record in 1690 and was on land owned by Alexander Maxwell and was spoken of as "Maxwell's Garrison"; in 1692 and 1703 it was called "Scotland Garrison", and again in 1707 was so called; it is officially listed in 1711 as "Scotland Garrison."

It is not known at what date this property came into possession of John McIntire. There are deeds covering adjoining lots but none for this particular lot is recorded. This house was used as a dwelling for many years, but subsequently was discontinued as a domicile. It was restored to its original condition about 1910 by the late John R. McIntire.

The house that stood near by on the opposite side of the road and known for many years as the Junkins Garrison was a building of similar construction and appearance and is also believed to have been constructed AFTER 1675-76. It was never officially listed as a Garrison and just when or how it came to be so called is not of record. This house was continuously in the possession of the Junkins family until it was destroyed by fire in 1889. This house was also in the drawing above mentioned by Mr. Church and published in same article.

MICUM MECANTIRE

The Immigrant

McINTIRE FAMILY

MICOM MECANTIRE, THE IMMIGRANT.

This surname appears in the records as MACKENTIRE; MACKEYNTIRE; MACKENTYRE; MECANTIER and various other forms. The spelling of his given name is also of various forms; MICOM; MICUM; MICU; MICHUM; MAKEM etc. These are undoubtedly a phonetic spelling and contraction of the well known name of MALCOLM. It was not until circa 1750 or after that the present form of surname came into general use.

He was undoubtedly one of the Scotch Prisoners captured at the battle of Dunbar 3 September 1650 and transported with others to New England early in January 1650-51 in the "Unity"; this claim is based on the fact that the Roster of the "John and Sara" arriving a year later with prisoners from the battle of Worcester is recorded and no MACKENTIRE is borne thereon; however, it does not evade the possibility of the first ship mentioned and of which nothing is definitely known.

We have no record of the date of his birth; though from ages given and found recorded of many others who were his fellow prisoners it was between 1625 and 1635.

There is no evidence of his CLAN connection or from what part of Scotland he came. Nor is there any, even indirect, evidence he was related in any manner to the Robert Mackentire age 24 who made a deposition at the Lynn Iron Works in 1653, or the Philip Mackentire recorded by Honorable Charles J. McIntire in 1906 as coming to Reading, Massachusetts in 1647-48. Robert Mackentire was a Dunbar Prisoner; if Philip Mackentire was in Massachusetts in 1647-48 he could not possibly have been of the Prisoner group.

After his arrival in Boston circa January 1650-51 he and others were sent to Dover, New Hampshire and vicinity where he served his time some six or seven years, etc.

The TRADITION handed down that he was in line for decimation and found himself a 10th man tried to escape and was recaptured, etc., is a physical impossibility as far as his person was concerned.
The Orders of Council show this order for a decimation BUT, the order is AFTER the battle of Worcester and pertains only to those prisoners and sometime after September 1651.

McINTIRE FAMILY

The TRADITION that his fellow prisoner and neighbor, Alexander Machanere, when approaching his last hours verbally devised him his young wife, etc., is plausible for that day and time; whether TRUE or NOT he married her shortly after Machanere's demise.

On 11 December 1682 four Lots in Kittery (now South Berwick) each 30 x 267 rods, were granted to John Key; James Grant; James Barry and MICUM MACKENTIRE. There is no evidence Mackentire ever lived on this land or even improved it. The Lot was sold to Philip Hubbard in 1706 by Daniel Mackentire, a son.

In 1664 he was Taxed in Dover, N.H. as "Micome the Scotchman."

Dated 26 Sept. 1664 and recorded 1 Oct. 1667 in York Co., Me. is an Order of Thomas Wiggin to John Paine "to satisfy unto Micu: Mackyntire 26 pounds." (Deeds ii-16)

He came to York, Me. circa 1670 and on 19 June 1670 John Pearce & Phebe, his wife, deeded to "makem Mackentyre", of York, 2 tracts of Upland, vizd.: 40 acres & 1 and ½ or 2 acres Meddow Land for 28 pounds which in part I haue and am fully to receive, etc.; sd 40 acres Upland on S.W. Side of Dummers Cove of Marsh near the Partings, etc. (Deeds ii-90)

On 1 Dec. 1670 James Grant made an assignment of a Bill of Sale he had of John Carmighell 15 Mar. 1668 to "makem Mackentyre," etc. Recorded 17 Jan. 1670-71. (Deeds ii-90) This Bill of Sale gives no details of what it concerned either in transfer of Carmighell to Grant or Grant to Macantire, however, it involved some 40 acres of land which is not mentioned but is fully described in a later deed as the land John Carmighell received from John Pearce in 1660; this deed is dated 21 July 1678 from Mackentire to Trafton i.e., sd land formerly Robert Knights, Edw. Rishworth, John Pearce, John Carmighell and James Grant and by sd Grant to Mackentire, etc. (Deeds iii-30)

Sometime after December 1670 and before September 1671 he married the widow of Alexander Mathanere, nee DOROTHY PEARCE, a daughter of John Pearce.

On 4 September 1671 Alexander Maxwell & wife Annas deeded to MICHUM MACKINTIRE of York a "tract of Upland whereon the sd Mackentyres house now standeth, formerly built by his predecessor, Allexander Mackanere, whose relict or Widdow hee since Married." (Deeds ii-104)

On July 1673 DOROTHY MACKEYNTYRE presented for not attending Public worship, etc. (Ct. records.)

Between 1672 and 1701 he had at least five grants of land; a grant 20 May 1696 was "additional to his father Pearce's land. Several deeds extant where he sold land, etc.

On 11 Sept. 1677 he was appointed administrator to the estate of John Cirmighell, decsd, his brother-in-law, and gave bond for 40 pounds, etc. (Ct. records ii-516)

In 1697 he and John Bracey, only heirs, made agreement to divide the real estate of their father-in-law, John Pearce. (Proc. i-39)

This real estate included 10 acres of land that belonged to John Cirmighell or Carmeale which had reverted to John Pearce after the death of Ann Pearce Carmighell without heirs. This land is mentioned in Mackentire's will and was sold by Daniel Mackentire to Arthur Bragdon in 1707. (Deeds vii-218)

Dorothy died after 1684 and prior to 1700 when he made the following

McINTIRE FAMILY

PEARCE EXCURSUS

John Pearce was born in the early part of 1600, from whence he came to New England is not of record nor is the exact date of his arrival. He was evidently married at the time he came.

His first appearance in the records is as a Fisherman at York. In 1653 and on the 2 July he was granted 10 acres of land on South Bass Cove. He purchased a tract of land 9 Dec. 1653 from Edward Rishworth and built a house thereon. (Deeds i-59)

He signed a petition in 1655 and on 26 Dec. 1660 he deeded to John Cirmihill of sd towne all right and title to house & tract of land, etc. which I bought of Edward Richworth, etc. (Deeds i-101)

He was one of the signers of the Petition to General Court of Massaschusetts Oct. 1662 concerning conditions of the conflicting governments in Maine. (Ct. records i-199)

In July 1662 one Isaac Nash died and his estate administered by widow Phebe Nash with John Pearce as bondsman, etc.

He was a member of the Grand Jury at York 12 June 1666. (Court records i-272)

On 10 Oct. 1666 one Alexander Mathanere made complaint to Edward Johnson & Edward Rishworth Justices for the Province against Alexander Maxwell for striking & abusing the sd Mathanere, etc. ..... James Grant's testimony and Maxwell's confession that he struck, etc. sd Mathanere ..... was fined 3 shillings & to pay charges, etc. of 0-3-6 pounds. It was ordered both be placed under bond for good behavior. Alexander Maxwell made bond for 10 pounds with John Twisden as bondsman; Alexander Mathanere made bond for 10 pounds with John Pearce as bondsman. (Ct. records i-276)

On 6 July 1667 one SARAH PEARCE was plaintiff in an action versus one Robert Mendum defendant ..... case withdrawn, no details. It is not known if this is the first wife of John Pearce or a daughter.

In the spring term of Court 1667 John Pearce was a Grand Juror. He was appointed Constable for Kittery and Sworn 29 July 1667, at the same date Nathaniel Masterson was sworn as Constable for York by Edward Richworth, Justice. (Ct. Records i-291)

In a Court 1667 Thomas Crawley was presented for being drunke & beating his wife, she being a weake ould woman, he was sentenced to sitt in the stocks for foure houres & make bond to keep the peace. John Pearce made his bond. (Ct. records i-288)

On 19 Oct. 1667 John Pearce was convicted by Edward Richworth for drunkeness and for his offence fined five shillings. (Ct. records i-300)

On Jan. 1667-68 John Pearce, Constable for Kittery was fined for great neglect, if not Contempt of Authority, in not summonesing severall delinquents to appear in September last & for not making returne of his warrants, etc., fined five pounds. (Ct. records i-304)

Sometime prior to 1670 he married (2) widow Phebe Nash and on 19 June 1670 John and Phebe Pearce deeded land to "makem Mackentyre". John Pearce resided at the same place for some 40 years. He and his wife were both probably killed in the Massacre of Jan. 1691-2 or died soon after. His estate was inventoried 26 Sept. 1692 by Matthew Austin and James Plaisted and returned for 35-3-6 pounds.

Children: (known)

i DOROTHY PEARCE: b ca 1647. She married (1) prior to 1666 Alexander Mathanere or Mackaneere. Said Mackaneere was a Scotch prisoner who came in the contingent of Jan. 1650-51 on the "Unity", served his time in or around Dover, N.H. and first shows up in York, Me. when he signed a petition Oct. 1662.

On 12 June 1666 Alexander Mathaneers and his wife presented for not Coming to publique meetings on the Lords day about five weeks. Mathaneere being examined the Court finds him unable to Come soe Constantly by reason of his weakness & lameness & upon promise of care to come to meetings for tyme to come is acquitted. (Ct. records i-266)

His name does not appear in the deed records as ever owning any land; he evidently built a house on land owned by Maxwell and was living in it when he died. Inventory on estate of Alexander Machaneer was made 1 Dec. 1670 and return made and recorded 14 Mar. 167-71. (Ct. records ii-420)

There is no record of any children; she married (2) prior to Sept. 1671 MICOM MECANTIRE, which see.

ii ANN Pearce: b ca 1650. She married prior to 1675 JOHN CARMIGHELL, A Scotch prisoner of the battle of Worcester whose name is found on the Roster of the "John and Sara" as John Carmuckle. There are various spellings of his name in the records as Carmuckle, Carmihell, Cirmighell, Cirmihill, Carmeale, etc.
He came to York, Me. in 1660 when he was deeded a house and land by Pearce on 29 Dec. 1660.

On 6 July 1675 ANN, wife of John Cirmihill presented for not frequenting public worship, etc. (Ct. records)

On 7 Apr. 1677 John Carmihell one of a group of 7 men slain by Indians; on May 1677 Macom Mackintyre and William Gowen alias Smith made bond for 40 pounds, etc., re his estate.

On 11 Sept. 1677 Administration granted to Micum Mackeyntire on estate of John Carmihell decsd, bond for 60 pounds made thereon, etc. (Ct. records ii-516)

There is no record of any children by this marriage. Ann was evidently deceased before 1697 when an agreement between John Bracey and Micum Mackentire was made for division of the real estate of John Pearce, their father-in-law. Land that Carmighell owned at the time of his death passed to Ann and on her passing reverted to her father, John Pearce, etc. This land shows up later after the division as belonging to Mackintire.

iii MARY Pearce: b ca 1653. She married between 1673-1676 John Bracey, b ca 1639 Conn. He was granted land at York in 1673; Mary was living in 1683 when she witnessed a deed and was probably deceased before 1696 when John Bracey made a blanket deed to Jeremiah Moulton of land, etc. In 1697 Bracey and Mackintire made agreement for division of land of John Pearce, father-in-law, etc. Bracey disappeared from the scene and returned to Conn. History of York, Banks, has an interesting write up of this man.

Children:

1 William Bracey: b ca 1675-78.

Born 1677, he married ante 1707, 2a SUSANNA YOUNG, born ca 1678; devised homestead by his father and purchased considerable adjoining land; came into possession of the small parcel of land on which stood the Maxwell Garrison House, later known as the Scotland Garrison House to sometime after 1711 and subsequently known as the McIntire Garrison House. There is no deed showing how he obtained this parcel of land and house. This Garrison House is still standing and was restored to original condition about 1910 by John R. McIntire. There is documentary evidence concerning this house and any one interested should consult History of York, Charles E. Banks, and Junkins Family History, Harry A. Davis, for references thereto.
